Allianz Global Investors Fund - Allianz Emerging Europe Equity Segregation of Assets/Liquidation/Merger

Dear Shareholder,

Since 01 March 2022 the NAV calculation, the subscriptions, redemptions and conversions of shares of the sub-fund Allianz Global Investors Fund - Allianz Emerging Europe Equity (the "Initial Sub-Fund") have been suspended due to the restrictive measures of the EU in response to the current situation in Ukraine. Given that the Initial Sub-Fund has a high exposure to Russian equities, the international sanctions applying to these equities have made it impossible to provide a reliable and robust valuation for these assets, thus prompting the need for the suspension. This situation remains unchanged as of the date of this Shareholder Notification.

After continuously monitoring the economic situation of the Initial Sub-Fund and having considered options to reposition such sub-fund in a manner that maximizes the value proposition the Board of Directors of Allianz Global Investors Fund (SICAV) (the "Company") has decided that the following steps shall be performed:

- Segregation of Assets: The Initial Sub-Fund shall be split in two sub-funds, the Initial Sub-Fund retaining the illiquid Russian assets, and the liquid assets being transferred to the new sub-fund Allianz Global Investors Fund – Allianz Emerging Europe Equity 2 (the "New Sub-Fund" or "Merging Sub-Fund").

- Liquidation of the Initial Sub-Fund: Following the transfer of the liquid assets the Initial Sub-Fund will be put into liquidation.
- Merger of the New Sub-Fund: Finally, one month after the transfer of the liquid assets the New Sub-Fund will be merged with an existing sub-fund of the Company, namely with the sub-fund Allianz Global Investors Fund - Allianz Emerging Markets Equity SRI (the “Receiving Sub-Fund”).

I. Segregation of Assets

After having continuously monitored the situation of the Russian equities that are held within the Initial Sub-Fund the Allianz Global Investors GmbH, acting through its Luxembourg Branch (“the Management Company”) together with the Board of Directors of the Company, has considered whether there are measures that can be taken that are in the best interests of the investors and would provide investors the possibility to redeem their investment or to otherwise generate liquidity.

Consequently, the Board of Directors of the Company has decided, following consultations with the Management Company, to split the Initial Sub-Fund in two sub-funds. After the split, the existing investors will be investors in the Initial Sub-Fund and in the New Sub-Fund in a proportionate manner, reflecting their investment in the Initial Sub-Fund. As part of the fund split, the liquid securities (liquid securities means, securities that are immediately eligible for sale pursuant and/or can be converted into cash) will be transferred to the Receiving Sub-Fund, while the illiquid securities (illiquid securities means, securities that are not immediately eligible for sale pursuant and/or cannot be converted into cash e.g. due to sanctions like Russian securities) remain in the Initial Sub-Fund.

Investors would therefore on the one hand benefit to participate in the New Sub-Fund with the liquid assets, and would remain as investors in the Initial Sub-Fund on the other hand.

Such segregation of assets will become effective on 13 May 2024.

The costs of selling certain non-transferable securities and securities with significant stamp duties/transfer fees in connection with the segregation will be borne by the Initial Sub-Fund.

The costs of transferring assets from the Initial Sub-Fund to the New Sub-Fund will be borne by the Management Company.

II. Liquidation of the Initial Sub-Fund

Company	Sub-Fund Name	Share Class	ISIN	WKN
Allianz Global Investors Fund	Allianz Emerging Europe Equity	A (EUR)	LU1992127883	A2PJ31
		A (USD)	LU1992127966	A2PJ32

After careful consideration, the Board of Directors of the Company has furthermore decided to liquidate the Initial Sub-Fund with effect from 13 May 2024 (the “Liquidation Date”). As a result of the above-mentioned illiquidity of Russian equities and the low assets under management due to the liquid assets being transferred, the Initial Sub-Fund will no longer be capable of properly pursuing its investment strategy and maintaining a diversified portfolio of investments. For the avoidance of doubt: the completion of the liquidation is dependent on the liquidity of the Russian securities remaining in Allianz Emerging Europe Equity. Only once the geopolitical situation and the sanctioning regime permits the disposal of such assets, the liquidation can be completed.

The liquidation costs will as well be borne by the Management Company.

Should you have any further queries regarding the liquidation, please consult your financial advisor, or contact the Management Company or one of the Information Agents as disclosed in the Prospectus. Further ongoing information can be found in the annual audit report of the Company and changes regarding the Initial Sub-Fund will be communicated and/or published to investors.

Additional information can be provided to you upon request.

Please note that the above-mentioned Liquidation Date is set based on the current status of sub-fund holidays. It may occur that unplanned/ad-hoc holidays are announced in certain markets, which would prevent the calculation of net asset value for the Old Sub-Fund, leading to the necessity to change the Liquidation Date to the next valuation date.

III. Merger of the New Sub-Fund

After the transfer of the liquid assets to the New Sub-Fund you will be holding shares in this New Sub-Fund in your securities account.

This New Sub-Fund will only be established on a temporary basis. Therefore, the portfolio will be too focused and concentrated on a region (Emerging Europe ex. Russia) that is, in the opinion of the Management Company, commercially not attractive enough to attract sufficient investor demand and/or retain sufficient assets under management to ensure the economically efficient management of the New Sub Fund. Therefore, it is considered that merging the New Sub-Fund with the Receiving Sub-Fund will streamline the product range and will offer the investors of the New Sub-Fund a more cost-effective and especially liquid investment alternative.

Consequently, and after careful consideration, the Board of Directors of the Company concluded that it will be in the best interest of the investors to merge the above-mentioned sub-funds as set out in the table below:
