As a result of the merger, the investors in both the Receiving Sub-Fund and the Merging Fund will benefit from the consolidated assets. This proposed merger will streamline the product range and increase the efficiency by benefiting from the economy of scale.

Impact for Allianz Global Investors Fund - Allianz Climate Transition Credit

The merger does not cause any significant economic changes for investors in the Receiving Sub-Fund. The risk profile and investment objectives remain unchanged. Please visit <https://regulatory.allianzgi.com> for a complete list of share classes currently available for the Receiving Sub-Fund. You will not be charged any additional expenses in connection with the merger.

Merger Procedure

On the Merger Date, shares of the Receiving Sub-Fund will be credited to investors in the Merging Fund. In return, the Receiving Sub-Fund receives the assets and liabilities of the Merging Fund. Consequently, there is no change in the investment structure of the Receiving Sub-Fund.

The complete merger will be reviewed by an auditor. We will provide you with the merger reports approved by the auditor free of charge upon request. If you do not agree with the proposed merger, you can redeem your shares in the Receiving Sub-Fund - as usually - free of redemption charges.

Statutory Sales Documentation

Copies of the Key Investor Documents and the prospectus are available from your advisor and are accessible or available free of charge upon request during normal business hours from the registered office of the Company, the Management Company and information agents in each jurisdiction in which the Funds/sub-funds are registered for public distribution. These documents are also accessible on the Internet at <https://regulatory.allianzgi.com>.

For investors domiciled in the Federal Republic of Germany, the merger was also published in the Börsen-Zeitung.

Yours faithfully,

The Board of Directors
