The prospectuses have been updated to incorporate the relevant provisions on the application of liquidity management tools, ensuring compliance with the updated regulatory requirements.

In accordance with regulatory requirements, liquidity management tools have been designated for each Fund/Sub-fund, and the corresponding information is detailed in the respective prospectus. Any future changes to a Fund/Sub-fund’s designated liquidity management tools will be communicated to unitholders in advance.

Information on the activation or deactivation of liquidity management tools will be made available to unitholders of the relevant Fund/Sub-fund and to prospective investors on <https://regulatory.allianzgi.com>.

Unitholders may inspect or obtain the revised sales prospectuses (including the relevant pre-contractual disclosures) free of charge from the date that the changes become effective at the registered office of the Management Company in Frankfurt/Main, the Management Company’s branch in Luxembourg and from the information agents in Luxembourg (State Street Bank International GmbH, Luxembourg branch) and in those countries in which the relevant Funds are authorised for public distribution.
